The Staff of the Legend

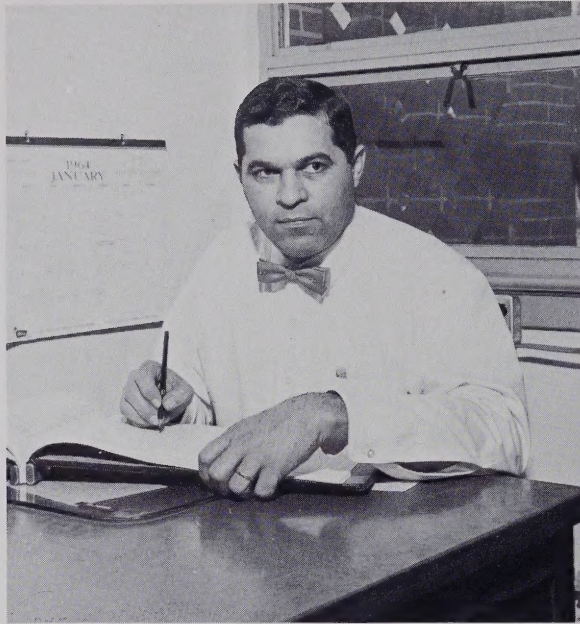

Dedication

To those who have been our inspiration,
Who first taught us to be brave and warm,
To ponder the eternal mysteries of the universe
And to have faith in our own ideas;
Who taught us not to follow the crowd
When everyone else was getting on the band wagon
And to close our ears to a howling mob;
Who taught us to listen to all men
But to filter all we hear on a screen of truth
And to take only the good that comes through;
Who taught us to scoff at cynics
And to beware of too much sweetness,
To sell our talent and skills to the highest bidders
But never to put a price tag on our hearts and souls;
Who taught us how to laugh when sad
And that there is no shame in tears;
Who taught us that there can be glory in failure
And despair in success;
To those who taught us to have sublime faith in ourselves
And consequently to have sublime faith in all mankind,

To our Parents

We dedicate the 1964 Edition of the Legend.

If

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tried by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating
And yet don't look too good nor talk too wise:

If you can dream and not make dreams your master;
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
and treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you've given your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And to hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings--not lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty second's worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And--which is more--you'll be a Man, my son!

Last Will and Testament

We the Senior Class of Buies Creek High School found in sound mind and body, do hereby leave as our last will and testament:

Section I

- To Mr. Parker, our principal, a radio for his French II Class and our hope that he can translate the new French songs.
- To Mr. Carroll Leggett, our Senior Class Sponsor, his "out to lunch" phrase for all the new Seniors coming up.
- To Mr. Donald Leggett, our coach, our positions on the Basketball teams and our hope that he will be able to fill them with better players next year.
- To Mrs. Nelson, our thanks for returning for our Senior year. We hope that the shock wasn't too great.
- To Miss Neighbors, her Bookkeeping class and our hope that the blackboards can take as many beatings next year as they have gotten this year.
- To Miss Stevens, a fund to buy grapes for next Halloween.

Section II

- To the Junior Class, our honorary positions as Seniors and our hope that they receive as much enjoyment from them as we have.
- To the Sophomore Class, our love for sports.
- To the Freshman Class, our mischievous ways and our awkward situations, in which we so often have found ourselves.

Section III

- I, Vicky Gauldin, leave my ability to understand French to anyone who can take it.
- I, Joe Gregory, will my love for school to everyone.
- I, Jerry Reaves, leave my road map to Benson to all the Buies Creek girls.
- I, Janet Small, will my hamburger crumbs, empty cups, and seat in Pop's to Gail J.
- I, Linda Sue Butts, will my position as chief cheerleader my Senior year to my sister Brenda.
- I, Barry Howard, will my three years worth of Biology notes to Bill Weaver, in hope that he will use them as well as I have.
- I, Joyce Newton, will my Ford Truck to anyone who thinks they are woman enough to drive it.
- I, Kay Dixon, leave my ability to stay "single" until I graduate to my sister Jean.
- I, Johnny Lewis, will my ability to stay on friendly terms with people from Angier to Eddie McLeod.
- I, Betty Sue Parker, leave my ability to go downtown during fourth period to anyone who thinks he can get away with it.
- I, Sherman Currin, will my ability to win the Sportsmanship award to Donald Johnson.
- I, Lynn Butts, will my hard head to Ralph Reardon.
- I, Larry Upchurch, leave my job as Editor of the annual to anyone who can stand the strain.
- I, Julia Wilburn, leave my ability to graduate to my sister Linda.
- I, Lloyd Chappell, leave my bus to Judy Stewart, provided she learns how to drive between now and next September.
- I, O. B. Wallace, leave my position as guard on the Basketball team to David Gardner.
- I, Alice Turlington, leave my ability to talk constantly through every class to Esther Savage.
- I, Ginny Upchurch, will my bottle of Marchands to anyone who wants to find out "that blondes do have more fun."
- I, Ann Arrington, leave my short skirts and tanned legs to Becky Hill and hope that she gets as much attention as I have.

Class History

Twelve years ago this fall nine members of our graduating class became classmates and friends as they enrolled in Miss Williams' first grade class. They were Alice Turlington, Kay Dixon, Ann Arrington, O. B. Wallace, Jerry Reaves, Ginny Upchurch, Sherman Currin, Johnny Lewis, and Larry Upchurch.

The previous year Barry Howard and Joyce Newton entered Buies Creek School and have remained here to graduate with the class of '64.

The next addition to our class came in the sixth grade when Lloyd Chappell came to us from Creswell, N. C.

In 1958 Julia Wilburn joined our class, having completed her first seven years at Angier School.

Linda Sue Butts was the next person to join our class. She came to us as a sophomore, having attended grades one through nine at Lillington.

After beginning school at Benson and remaining there for three years, Vicky Gauldin attended both Kinston and Coats schools respectively before joining our class in the Junior year.

Also that year Betty Sue Parker left Smithfield High School and joined our class. She attended grades one through four at Wilson Mills, N. C.

Lynn Butts, who began school at Buies Creek, attended Angier School for three years before returning to Buies Creek as a freshman and this year joining the class of '64.

Janet Small, having attended grades one through ten at Buies Creek, entered our class this year from the Sophomore Class.

Joe Gregory began school at Buies Creek and remained here through the fifth grade, he then moved to Coats for one year. The next year he returned to Buies Creek and remained through his junior year. After working two years he returned to join our graduating class of '64.

Class Prophecy

As I reminisce, I recall my senior year at Buies Creek High School as being one which I shall never forget. Laughter, gaiety, fun, and sadness; all of these were shared by us.

Ginny Upchurch wasn't able to attend our last class reunion due to a broken hip; she threw it out of joint while teaching dancing at Benson. O. B. Wallace was there but didn't look the same without his teeth. He began his dental career by pulling all of his own. Sherman Currin seemed to be a big wheel in some business in Las Vegas. Larry Upchurch is a certified public accountant, thus still maintaining his interest in figures. Alice Turlington is now head designer for General Motors. She supplies local auto dealer, Jerry Reaves, who retired from "hell driving" after setting a new demolition record.

Janet Small took over as president of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company after discovering a way to diminish the "cancer scare." Betty Sue Parker seemed to be quite satisfied with her job as Dean of Men at U.N.C. As head nurse at Dunn Hospital, Ann Arrington is busy keeping Cromartie Funeral Home in business. Lynn Butts has become a famous cartoon artist; he draws himself. Johnny Lewis is now a policeman at the Benson Dance. Lloyd Chappell, the first "astronaut" on the moon, from our class. Barry Howard is head coach at Harnett County's first consolidated school.

Joyce Newton is a happily married housewife with a small family of nine. Linda Sue Butts is a housewife with a new set of twins. The last time it was quintuplets! Julia Wilburn is a beautician, specializing in people beyond help. Kay Dixon has become Mr. Butler's cook, maid, and housekeeper. She's also Mrs. Butler! Joe Gregory has become State's star basketball player.

It was such a rewarding experience to meet my fellow classmates again. Now, I shall be content to teach French to the kids in my class and serve as local president of the "Old Maids of America."
